

*For New York City's Enthusiasts,
We want to keep you informed
with the Newest and Latest...*

Leonel Piraino

Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker

212-906-9363

917-701-2363

lpiraino@bhsusa.com

View my Listings >>

Time Out Market New York

We've packed all our favorite restaurants under one roof at the Time Out Market New York. The DUMBO location in Empire Stores has fried chicken from Jacob's Pickles, pizza from Fornino, inventive ice cream flavors from Sugar Hill Creamery and more amazing eateries—all cherry-picked by us. Chow down over two floors with views of the East River, Brooklyn Bridge and Manhattan skyline.

READ MORE ►

Labor Day weekend celebrations

Before you bid summer adieu, go out with a bang on Labor Day. Whether you want ideas for cool out-of-town spots or just want a staycation, we've listed all the best events and other unmissable things to do, including ways to have the best summer ever before Labor Day weekend 2024.

READ MORE ►

NYC Pizza Run

Hoof it around Brooklyn's Fort Greene Park in this run that stretches 5 kilometers and includes pizza checkpoints: at each checkpoint, you'll have to scarf down a slice of pizza before continuing on your way. In case you're wondering, the pizza is from Table 87, "The Home Of The Coal Oven Slice." Top finishers get bragging rights and prizes, but everyone goes home with a T-shirt, swag bag and the warm fuzzies for supporting the Juvenile Diabetes

The U.S. Open in New York 2024

The U.S. Open brings all the stars of the tennis world to Queens for the last major tournament of the season.

READ MORE ►

Research Foundation. What's more, runners get a free drink afterward at the nearby German DSK Beer Garden. Even if you're not the kind of person who can run a 5K with saucy bread and cheese in your belly, come by to cheer on the runners. The run, hosted on Sunday, September 15 this year, is the 14th annual event.

READ MORE ►

The Great Jack O'Lantern Blaze

Carving a jack-o'-lantern may be a time-honored American tradition for many, but nobody—and we mean nobody—does pumpkin carving quite like Great Jack O'Lantern Blaze. Every fall, pumpkins aplenty decorate two locations of this festive, family-friendly attraction. This year promises thousands of intricately carved jack-o'-lanterns in mesmerizing displays, plus dazzling new experiences in honor of the event's founding 20 years ago. Blaze: Hudson Valley runs at Van Cortlandt Manor in Croton-on-Hudson in Westchester County from September 13 through November 17. Blaze: Long Island runs at Old Bethpage Village Restoration in Old Bethpage, Long Island from October 4 through November 3. Tickets are on sale now.

READ MORE ►

September 11 commemorations

This year marks the 23rd anniversary of the September 11 attacks, and you may be looking for events around NYC to memorialize this solemn day. In 2024, events include vigils, memorials, and tribute runs.

READ MORE ►

Le Dîner en Blanc

Bougie "secret" outdoor dinner party Le Dîner en Blanc will return on September 26. As usual, thousands of New Yorkers clad in white will migrate to a secret location, where they will indulge in a gourmet picnic complete with fancy food, fine China, silverware and loads of wine. Keep an eye here for details as the event date approaches.

READ MORE ►

New York Transit Museum's Bus Festival

At this festival, New Yorkers can time travel through over 90 years of New York City history.

This September 8, the New York Transit Museum's treasured Bus Festival returns, providing New Yorkers with the opportunity to board beloved vintage buses in Brooklyn at a free outdoor event. The Bus Festival includes photo ops, a chance to meet some of the bus drivers who keep our city running smoothly, and a scavenger hunt activity sheet that'll help you learn about these cool vehicles. The festival is free to attend, open to all ages, and runs from 10am to 3:30pm. If you RSVP, you have the chance to win a family membership to the New York Transit Museum. You might as well make it a full-circle experience and take the bus to Bus Fest—the B25 stops close to the festival site.

READ MORE ►

The Great Migration art exhibition

Free Friday Nights at MoMA

One hundred life-size elephants will appear in the Meatpacking District from September 6 to October 2024 as part of “The Great Migration,” a global fundraising effort to uplift Indigenous voices and motivate the human race to share space with their animal neighbors. “The Great Migration” relies on the collaboration between Indigenous artisans, contemporary artists, and cultural institutions, all of whom work together to raise money to fund human-wildlife coexistence projects. The funds are also used in biodiversity conservation and protection efforts of migratory animals that traverse land, skies, oceans and seas. Each elephant is created by The Coexistence Collective, a group of 200 indigenous artists from the Bettakurumba, Paniya, Kattunayakan and Soliga communities of India’s Nilgiri Biosphere Reserve, Tamil Nadu.

READ MORE ▶

Find inspiration at no cost at the Museum of Modern Art on select Fridays. UNIQLO NYC Nights offer free admission to New York City residents and extended hours on the first Friday of every month. Explore in the galleries, get creative with drop-in drawing sessions, enjoy music and see a film in the theaters. Just be sure to reserve a ticket in advance online. This month's event is on Friday, September 6. Tickets are released on week in advance; same-day film tickets are also free for New York City residents, available on-site, after 4pm.

READ MORE ▶

SEE IT NOW

Curated List by Sharon Hoge

Some great exhibits are winding up their runs in NYC – some within days – don’t let back-to-school distract you for catching these shows in their final days.

Jenny Holzer: Light Line

Guggenheim Museum

Surrounding museum goers, site-specific scrolling texts from Holzer series encircle the Guggenheim's six rotunda ramps with "Truisms" and "Inflammatory Essays."

Closes September 29

READ MORE ►

Sleeping Beauties: Reawakening Fashion

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Viewers are invited to smell the scents of floral motifs, to touch gallery walls embossed with embroidery, to experience the stride restriction of hobble skirts in this exhibit of over 220 garments spanning four centuries, connected by themes of nature, and flowerin as a metaphor for the transience of fashion.

Closes September 2

READ MORE ►

Out of Town

Forum Gallery

Natural subjects from forests, villages, coast-to-coasts, and far away shores feature in diverse works expressing the human desire to escape busy urban lives for the reverie of landscape vistas and seasonal adventures.

Closes September 7

READ MORE ►

Frank Walter: To Capture a Soul

The Drawing Center

In this first solo US exhibit, expressive linear portraits, bold abstract cosmological compositions, carved wooden sculptures, and pages of writings provide insight into the polymath Antiguan artist's artistic practice and his relationship to issues of race, identity, the legacy of slavery, the colonial and postcolonial experience, Caribbean history and politics.

Closes September 15

READ MORE ►

Wonder City: New York City Travel Posters

Poster House

Before it was monickered “the Big Apple,” New York was the “Wonder City,” and these posters show the hustle and bustle, bright lights, and imposing structures that attracted tourists to a town that was emerging in the final decades of the 19th century as one of the world’s greatest cities.

Closes September 8

READ MORE ►

The Anatomy of a Movie Poster: The work of Dawn Baillie

Poster House

Indelible images that attracted movie goers to “The Silence of the Lambs,” “Little Miss Sunshine” and countless other films, this exhibit shows iconic and beloved images created over four decades by designer Dawn Baillie;

Closes September 8

READ MORE ►

PHOTO CREDITS

Frank Walter, Profile of a Man in Striped Shirt, n.d. Oil on card 6 ¼ x 8 ½ inches. Courtesy of the Walter Posters courtesy of Poster House

BrownHarrisStevens.com

NEW YORK CITY · HAMPTONS · PALM BEACH · MIAMI · WORLDWIDE

BHS PARTNERING WORLDWIDE

LP LUXURY
PORTFOLIO
INTERNATIONAL

Leading
REAL ESTATE COMPANIES
OF THE WORLD

All information is from sources deemed reliable but is subject to errors, omissions, change of price, prior sale or withdrawal without notice. No representation or guaranty is made as to accuracy of any description. All measurements and other information should be re-confirmed by customer. All rights to content, photographs and graphics reserved to Broker.